Information for Table Leaders:

Table Leaders are assigned a group of clubbers and spend Wednesday evenings listening to those clubbers recite their verses, helping them at game time and sitting with them at council time. Table Leaders also call their assigned clubbers each week to encourage them in their handbooks as well as build up the bond between Table Leader and clubber.

The following list highlights some of the major requirements and responsibilities for Table Leaders:

1. Be a Christian.
2. Arrive by 6:15 P.M. every night to provide leadership for clubbers who arrive early, especially clubbers who come with other leaders.
3. Contact your director or the commander if you are unable to make it on time to club for any reason.
4. Spend the entire time from when you arrive until club is over focusing all your attention on your assigned clubbers.
5. Attend the Awana Leader's Intro Meeting.

Full details on the requirements and responsibilities for Table Leaders are found in the Awana Leader Guidebook, which is handed out at the leader meeting prior to the start date. In addition, the Awana Fall Conference being held on September 17th, 2011 at Shoreline Baptist Church in Fountain Valley provides a wealth of excellent ideas on how to be a more effective Table Leader.

Statement of Faith

Grace Community Church of Saddleback Valley

- I. Scriptures: The Bible, containing the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, comprising sixty-six books, is the written Word of God. It is supernaturally inspired by the Spirit of God, inerrant in the original manuscripts, and infallible in its teachings. It is the divine authority for every person in every age.
- II. God and the Holy Trinity: There is one God, who is a sovereign Spirit, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. These three persons are one in substance and equal in power and glory.
- III. The Lord Jesus Christ: God the Father out of love for man, sent Jesus Christ into the world for man's salvation. Jesus Christ in the flesh was both God and man. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He lived a sinless life, worked miracles, and taught the perfect truth of God. He died as a sacrifice upon the cross, atoning for man's sin through his shed blood. He was raised from the dead bodily on the third day, ascended to the right hand of the Father, where He is head of the church and intercedes for believers, and is returning again bodily in power and glory.
- IV. The Holy Spirit: The Holy Spirit convicts men of sin and calls them to faith. He baptizes and seals all believers at the moment of their salvation, and sanctifies them as they grow in grace. He equips the saints with His gifts, bears His fruit in their lives, comforts and leads them into all truth.
- V. Mankind: All men are created in the image of God, but all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. Man is alienated from God by his sin, and stands in need of redemption in Jesus Christ.
- VI. Salvation: Man's redemption and reconciliation with God occur as an act of God's grace, and are entirely apart from the good works of any human being. Salvation comes through personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior, and results in man's justification before God. God's people are chosen from the foundation of the world, and they are eternally secure. In his salvation man received forgiveness of sins, the impartation of a new nature, and the assured hope of eternal life.
- VII. The Church: The universal church is made up of all true believers in Jesus Christ, those in every time and place who have been regenerated by the Spirit of God. In its parts the church consists of individuals and groupings of Christians who have fellowship as the body of Christ. The purpose of the church is to glorify God. This is accomplished primarily through the preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ to the end that men might be saved through repentance and faith, and through preaching and teaching to edify the saints. It is accomplished secondarily through good works which represent the love and mercy of God.
